

- I. Désolé de devoir te l'annoncer ainsi mais ton dessert n'est pas assez bon pour gagner la compétition.
 - I'm sorry to have to break it to you like this/that way but your dessert isn't good enough to win the competition/contest.

- II. Ne laisse pas le chat sortir. Il ira trop loin.
 - Don't let the cat (get/go) out. It will go too far.

- III. Si tu peux faire le gâteau toi-même, ce serait moins cher et plus sain.
 - If you can/are able bake the cake yourself, it would be cheaper / less expensive and healthier.

IV. Because she didn't want to miss the presentation, she _____ a 5 a.m. flight from San Francisco to New York.

(A) would take

(B) took

(C) had taken

(D) would have taken

- Pour ne pas manquer la présentation, elle a pris un vol à 5 heures du matin de San Francisco à New York.

V. Elle est passée à autre chose depuis que sa relation avec lui n'a pas marché.

- She has moved on (to something else) since her relationship with him didn't work out.

to work out: fonctionner, marcher

to workout: faire du sport